The page has a navigation menu on the left with the following items: Getting Started, Personal, Address and Phone, Passport, Travel, Travel Companions, Previous U.S. Travel, U.S. Contact, Family, Work / Education / Training, Security and Background (highlighted), Medical and Health, Criminal, Security, Immigration Law Violations, and Miscellaneous. The main content area is titled "Nonimmigrant Visa Application" and "Security and Background: Medical and Health Information". It contains a note: "NOTE: Provide the following security and background information. Provide complete and accurate information to all questions that require an explanation. A visa may not be issued to persons who are within specific categories defined by law as inadmissible to the United States (except when a waiver is obtained in advance). Are any of the following applicable to you? While a YES answer does not automatically signify ineligibility for a visa, if you answer YES you may be required to personally appear before a consular officer." Below the note are three questions, each with a "Q:" label and a "A:" label with "Yes" and "No" radio buttons. The first question is: "Q: Do you have a communicable disease of public health significance such as tuberculosis (TB)?". The second question is: "Q: Do you have a mental or physical disorder that poses or is likely to pose a threat to the safety or welfare of yourself or others?". The third question is: "Q: Are you or have you ever been a drug abuser or addict?". A red arrow points from the "Security and Background" menu item to the first question.
